Character: Bayonetta from Bayonetta

157-word bio:

Born of a forbidden union between darkness and light, Bayonetta is one of the last Umbra Witches to walk the Earth. After awakening from a 500-year slumber with no memories of her past, she springs into action to find her destiny. Bayonetta fiercely duels Angels day and night in wicked style, double-wielding handguns while strutting in machine gun stilettos. Her flowing locks are the conduit to summon mighty demons to her aid in battle. Using her powerful spells, she stops time in battle to attack her foes before they can react. She wears a mysterious red gemstone on her chest believed to be one in a pair. Convinced that the gemstones are the key to understanding her past, Bayonetta sets on an arduous journey to Vigrid, a city teeming with ancient secrets, to find the other gemstone. No Angel or Witch can stand in her way as she strives to uncover her true purpose in this realm.
